The head that once was crowned with thorns

Hymnal 483, vs. 1, 2, 3, 6
St Magnus; desc. M. Walker

Sung by all; please stand

1 The head that once was crowned with thorns is crowned with glo - ry now;
 2 The high - est place that heaven af - fords is his, is his by right,
 3 the joy of all who dwell a - bove, the joy of all be - low,
 4 To them the cross with all its shame, with all its grace is given;
 5 They suf - fer with their Lord be - low, they reign with him a - bove,

1 a roy - al di - a - dem a - dorns the might - y vic - tor's brow.
 2 the King of kings, and Lord of lords, and heaven's e - ter - nal Light;
 3 to whom he man - i - fests his love and grants his name to know.
 4 their name, an ev - er - last - ing name; their joy, the joy of heaven.
 5 their prof - it and their joy to know the mys - tery of his love.

6 The cross he bore is life and health, his people's hope, his people's wealth,

 their everlasting theme.

The Collect for Today

Celebrant: God be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

O God, the King of glory, you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven: Do not leave us comfortless, but send us your Holy Spirit to strengthen us, and exalt us to that place where our Savior Christ has gone before; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

A Reading from Acts

Acts 1:6-14

When the apostles had come together, they asked Jesus, "Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?" He replied, "It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. While he was going and they were gazing up toward heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them. They said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up toward heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven."

Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey away. When they had entered the city, they went to the room upstairs where they were staying, Peter, and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. All these were constantly devoting themselves to prayer, together with certain women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, as well as his brothers.

Psalm 68:1-10, 33-36
Sung by all; please stand

Tone: Duke Street

Music: Thomas Pavlechko (b. 1962), from St. Martin's Psalter

- 1 Let God arise, and let his [enemies] be scattered;*
let those who hate him [flee] before him.
- 2 Let them vanish like smoke when the wind [drives it] away;*
as the wax melts at the fire, ...so let the wicked perish at the [presence] of God.
- 3 But let the righteous be glad and re-[joi]ce be-fore God;*
let them also be [merry] and joyful.
- 4 Sing to God, sing praises to his name; ...exalt him who rides up-[on] the heavens;*
Yahweh is his name, ... re-[joi]ce before him!
- 5 Father of orphans, ... de-[fender] of widows,*
God in his holy [hab]-itation!
- 6 God gives the solitary a home, ... and brings forth prisoners [in]-to freedom;*
but the rebels shall live in [dry] places.
- 7 O God when you went forth be-[fore] your people,*
when you marched [j]through the wilderness,
- 8 the earth shook, and the skies poured down rain, at the presence of God, ... the [God] of Sinai,*
at the presence of God, ... the [God] of Israel.
- 9 You sent a gracious rain, O God, up-[on your] inheritance;*
you refreshed the land when [it] was weary.
- 10 Your people [found] their home in it;*
in your goodness, O God, you have made provision [for] the poor.
- 33 Sing to God, O kingdoms [of] the earth,*
sing praises [to] the Lord.
- 34 He rides in the heavens, . . . the [an]-cient heavens;*
he sends forth his voice, ... his [might]-y voice.
- 35 Ascribe [power] to God;*
his majesty is over Israel; ... his strength is [in] the skies.
- 36 How wonderful is God in his [ho]-ly places,*
the God of Israel, ...giving strength and power to his people! ... [Blest] be God!

A Reading from 1 Peter

1 Peter 4:12-14; 5:6-11

Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal that is taking place among you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice insofar as you are sharing Christ's sufferings, so that you may also be glad and shout for joy when his glory is revealed. If you are reviled for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the spirit of glory, which is the Spirit of God, is resting on you.

Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, so that he may exalt you in due time. Cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. Discipline yourselves, keep alert. Like a roaring lion your adversary the devil prowls around, looking for someone to devour. Resist him, steadfast in your faith, for you know that your brothers and sisters in all the world are undergoing the same kinds of suffering. And after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, support, strengthen, and establish you. To him be the power forever and ever. Amen.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: John 17:1-11

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus looked up to heaven and said, “Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you, since you have given him authority over all people, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. I glorified you on earth by finishing the work that you gave me to do. So now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had in your presence before the world existed.

“I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one.”

The Homily

The Rev. Peggy Bryan

Nicene Creed

Said by all

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
By the power of the Holy Spirit, he was incarnate from the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Holy Communion

The Celebrant says an Offertory Sentence

Offertory Anthem

Hark! Ten Thousand Harps and Voices

Words: Thomas Kelly, 1806
Music: Robert Powell (b. 1932)

Hark! ten thousand harps and voices
Sound the note of praise above;
Jesus reigns and heav'n rejoices,
Jesus reigns, the God of love:
See, He sits on yonder throne;
Jesus rules the world alone,
Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Amen.

King of glory, reign forever,
Thine an everlasting crown;
Nothing from Thy love shall sever
Those whom Thou hast made Thine own:
Happy objects of Thy grace,
Destined to behold Thy face.
Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Amen

Saviour, hasten Thine appearing;
Bring, O bring the glorious day,
When, the awful summons bearing,
Heav'n and earth shall pass away;
Then, with golden harps we'll sing,
"Glory, glory to our King!"
Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Amen.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the word.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Sung by all heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

Music: William Mathias (1934-1992)

The people stand or kneel.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." -10-

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen
Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Celebrant: As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayer of Spiritual Communion (Said by those at home)

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer to you praise and thanksgiving. I remember your death, Lord Christ; I proclaim your resurrection; I await your coming in glory. Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood at Calvary's altar, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving
Celebrant and People

God of abundance, you have fed us
 with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
 you have united us
 with Christ and one another;
 and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
 Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

Blessing

May God give you work until your life is done, and God give you life until your work is done. And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

Today's Music

The Sunday After Ascension Day is one of two days in the church year (the other being Christ the King, the last Sunday of the year) when we envision Christ in regal splendor on the Throne of Heaven. This is in stark contrast to the pastoral humility of his birth at Christmas, and the tortuous agony of his Crucifixion at Passiontide. We have several wonderful hymns in our tradition that celebrate this vibrant image, some of which we sing today. Others will have to wait until November 26. Our anthem is a setting of an 1806 text by Irish hymnist and preacher, Thomas Kelly. The simple yet vigorous rhythm of Robert Powell's setting is reminiscent of much early American hymnody.

Next Week, Special Choral Eucharist for Whitsunday

In celebration of Whitsunday, the Day of Pentecost, and in recognition of our Choral Scholars' last official service this program year, Calvary Choir will present a Special Choral Eucharist, next Sunday, our first since before COVID. In place of the usual, congregationally sung Gloria, Sanctus, Benedictus, and Fraction Anthem, the Choir will sing movements from English organist and composer, Harold Darke's (1888-1976), lovely Communion Service in E, one of thousands of musical settings of the Mass Ordinary that have been composed over the centuries and continue to be written by contemporary composers today. Such mass settings are the norm in most cathedrals, and we hope this beautiful music will enhance your worship experience on this special day.

Boys and Girls Club / Calvary Preschool Snacks Outreach. The Boys and Girls Club and the Calvary Preschool are both open and would really appreciate the resumption of our outreach effort to these two great organizations. We have a decades long history of providing pre-packaged snacks to both. We won't be using a sign up system during the pandemic. Just let the Spirit move you. Drop off your snacks at either or both locations whenever it fits your schedule. If you have questions, call Sarah Peterson (831-247-2928) or email at skpete123@gmail.com
